

Lisa Hall, Secret

I recall a little something, it fills insanity.
If I remember, what I'm hiding.
Would I really need to keep.
Time to grieve, time to suffer...
Time to leave, does this thought,
belong to me?

Chorus:

I only want to keep a secret,
I only want to keep a secret,
I only want to keep a secret,
I only want to...

(I want to whisper in your ear)
I never thought, a little whisper,
could bring about, such misery,
and in the time, the space I'm after
would I really need to keep.

Time to grieve, time to suffer.
Time to leave, does this thought,
belong to me?

I only want to keep a secret,
I only want to keep a secret,
I only want to keep a secret,
I only want to keeeeeeeeeeeep...

I only wanna..

I only wanna..

I only wanna..

I only wanna..

I only wanna..
