5, 9 (10, 11), 12, 18 (what!)

She's the one you thought would never do a solo LP Yeah, now what chick could outsell me? Drama comes in dozens and I know you love it A rose is still a rose, so I rose above it The more that they see the woman got a mind of her own The less that they want a part of my throne, it figures But the more they compare me to the ones they could own They know they never should have left me alone I'm bigga No doubt Money gang and my G's is up Treat me like David Blaine and freeze me up Let me address the issue I'm super not superficial Spoil me The only statement I'm makin' is royalties (rock the dollars) Seven digits never under my bank account hold Numbers like your phone number, plus area code Gamble with your career Go ahead chance her See what happened with scrubs on my records
