

Lisa Lopes, Hot

5, 9 (10, 11), 12, 18 (what!)

She's the one you thought would never do a solo LP

Yeah, now what chick could outsell me?

Drama comes in dozens and I know you love it

A rose is still a rose, so I rose above it

The more that they see the woman got a mind of her own

The less that they want a part of my throne, it figures

But the more they compare me to the ones they could own

They know they never should have left me alone

I'm bigga

No doubt

Money gang and my G's is up

Treat me like David Blaine and freeze me up

Let me address the issue

I'm super not superficial

Spoil me

The only statement I'm makin' is royalties (rock the dollars)

Seven digits never under my bank account hold

Numbers like your phone number, plus area code

Gamble with your career

Go ahead chance her

See what happened with scrubs on my records

Deserve answers

Oh Left Eye

Everybody loves Miss Left Eye

What's happenin'?
