LISA MAY, Heavily

Heavily, heavily I felt you in my chest It reminded me, reminded me Every touch kills me when I've tried too hard, too hard to save you But it hold me back Your love is mine Keeps me alive But what comes around goes around again...

My, my, my, heartbeat Don't leave me again

Heavily, heavily I felt you in my chest It reminded me, reminded me You and I would never last. I'll follow into the dark Into your madness Sunrise till love is gone I'm feeling I'm feeling
