

Lisa Miskovsky, Whaf It

you've spent too many years walking alone spending time like i spend money on beer i used to be that way
expected too much i guess two days and get me out of this mess so come now
let's catch an aeroplane, fly don't be afraid and trouble will stay out of sight what if the plane crashed down what if the sky grows to dark would you ever see the spark what if the wind's too strong what if the pilot does something wrong burnt once, now I'm sore I rather stay outside and have fun While you're opening doors
I used to be that way
expected too much i guess expected too much two days and get me out this mess
so come now
let's catch an aeroplane, fly
don't be afraid and trouble will stay out of sight
what if the plane crashed down
what if the sky grows to dark
would you ever see the spark
what if the wind is too strong
what if the pilot does something wrong you're so, you're so afraid my baby
and love, love
I will be there
what if the plane crashed down
what if the plane crashed down
what if the sky grows to dark
would you ever see the spark
what if the wind is too strong
what if the pilot does something wrong