Lisa Miskovsky, You Dance Just Like Me

Once was lost, now it's over I greet the morning, I believe it was the light Once was lost, now it's over, without a warning I believe it was the night 'Cause I feel so lost when you're mine You can no longer give me that sign 'Cause you dance just like me yeah Just like me I can't see 'cause, I'm blinded by the ocean That you once gave to me Why can't I be alone, I get a notion That it wasn't meant to be But it's easy to see when you're blind You can hear me when I make that sound 'Cause you dance just like me yeah Just like me You can see with no eyes You can feel that wind blow Through the streets with no lights When you feel that you're over and out When you need someone there through the night I can guide you through fire and ice
