

Lisa Nilsson, Ticket To Heaven

"So many people around me
Seem to feel so lost and alone
Someone's always forgotten
Tell me why, why must it be so
But someone up there
Must have seen me and decided
"Now it's her turn"

My turn to meet someone
Who knows what I need
It looks like my lonely days
Are finally over

Cos' you're my ticket to heaven
You're my angel of love
Darling, stars explode when I'm moving
Close to you, yes it's true
And I just can't get enough
When you take me to heaven with you

I've been searching all over
You've been here, right here all along
And God knows where I'd be
If you hadn't set me free
With a love so deep and strong
I'd been living like a leaf in a storm
Never knew love so warm
Until I landed in your arms

Baby, you are my lucky star
My four-leaf clover
It looks like my lonely days
Are finally over

Cos' you're my ticket to heaven
You're my angel of love
Baby, stars explode when I'm moving
Close to you, yes it's true
And I just can't get enough
When you take me to heaven with you

You're my angel of love
Baby, stars explode when I'm moving
Close to you, yes it's true

Ticket to heaven baby
You're my angel of love
Moving, close to, close to you...
