

Lisa Shaw, Vicious Circle

Each day I try to explain to myself
Somehow you've got to live this day through
And get to grips of what is going on
Why is life a daily fight with weakness
Oh Lord, I want to know
I sit at home, a sleepless night
To figure out and trying to find the point
Of what's going on, alone, yet not alone
People live together as strangers
Oh children of lost souls
(Chorus)
Is this a vicious circle, is this a dead end
Who shall I believe today
What's the solution, and who shall I trust
And where shall I go
Asking is there any explanation
Oh Lord, I want to know
There must be a way to set us free
To show a face to find the key
To run straight ahead
To hope to have faith
What's in life the best priority
Oh Lord, I want to know
What am I living for What am I hoping for
Which is my way
Where am I going
Show me the way
oh Lord, I want to know
(Chorus)
Is this a vicious circle
