

Lissie, Further Away (Romance Police)

give him
is as natural as breathing he's loving and he's leaving watch him go, let him go Need him
but you never gonna keep him you should get used to this leaving
watch him go, let him go

does anyone love anyone, anymore?
take what they want
tak me

he gets further away
you're getting sad every day

chance him
his bee like a strenger he talk but what's he saying?
heaven knows, let him go cheat him
you never gonna beat him just shake him like a demon make him go, watch him go

does anyone love anyone, anymore?
tak me
