

Lit, Fuel

Look around and see who's watching what do they think your such a happening player i don't do this for myself for my enjoyment i only want to impress you your so amazing to me how you know everything and your just so cool it makes me sick you give me ammunition you are my gasoline i hope you stick around cuz you kill me you fuel me tell me what i need to do i'll change just for you i'm just a stupid whore i don't even listen to this kind of music i only want to be famous your so much fun to be with and someone to be seen with i'm no one when you're not around
