

Lit, Looks Like They Were Right

Turns out
I'm exactly how your friends
Thought I would turn out
Just another burnout
And it looks like
We were nothing more than just
A real good look-alike

And I hate to say it, but
It looks like they were right again tonight
And I'm probably gonna start another fight
And I'll hit the wall
Take a fall
Forget it all

Looks like they were right

Can't stop
Even though I know it's just
A fucked up way to be
And I'm sure you hate me
We'll sit tight
'Cause you haven't seen the rest
The worst part of me yet

And I hate to say it, but
It looks like they were right again tonight
And I'm probably gonna start another fight
We'll get it on
Do it wrong
But all along

It looks like they were right

Everybody's got a reason
And they're just not telling
Everybody's got the answer
But they're just not selling
We start a fire just to light it up
Realize we burned it down
To the ground

Turns out
I'm exactly how your friends
Thought I would turn out
Just another burnout

Well it looks like they were right again tonight
And I'm probably gonna start another fight
And I'll hit the wall
Take a fall
Forget it all
It looks like they were right again tonight
And I'm probably gonna start another fight
I won't give it up
I'll live it up
And keep it up
Until I get it right

Looks like they were right
