Little Mix, Grown

[Perrie]

Hold up, wait, you used to be a frenemy Back then boy, you didn't even notice me Why now, you tryna to get a hold of me We never ever spoke, so what makes you think you know me?

[Leigh Anne]

It's funny how the tables turn
I'm sittin' back baby watching you burn
No regrets, it's a lesson learned
Cos what you think ain't my concern

[All]

About time that I let you know My right and I assume control You blew it baby years ago Can't get with me, now I'm grown

Grown now, grown now Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now Don't you know that I can hold my own Boy, you missed the boat Can't get with me, now I'm grown

[Jesy]

Your voice dropped, you thought that you can handle me You played mean, but now you trying to holla me You're washed up and now I'm in a different league Your tryin' way too hard and I don't need your flattery

[Jade]

Now, it's funny how the tables turn I'm sitting back baby watching you burn No regrets it's a lesson learned 'Cause what you think ain't my concern

[All]

About time that I let you know My right and I assume control You blew it baby years ago Can't get with me, now I'm grown

Grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now
Don't you know that I can hold my own
Boy, you missed the boat
Can't get with me, now I'm grown

[Jesy]

You didn't want me, it took too long You didn't want me and now I'm grown Oh what a shame baby, now I'm grown [Perrie] Hey!

[AII]

Grown now, grown now Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now Don't you know that I can hold my own Boy, you missed the boat Can't get with me, now I'm grown

Grown now, grown now

Don't you know that I'm grown now, grown now Don't you know that I can hold my own Boy, you missed the boat Can't get with me, now I'm grown
