Little River Band, Look In Your Eyes

When I lie awake at night and I gently touch your cheek The worries of the day slowly drift away As I close my weary eyes and I feel you gently breathe I think of all you are and slowly float away Here we are in our world Looking for a sign When I find that I'm lost I look in your eyes There's that look in your eyes When I feel alone I simply think of you Mistakes I have made, pains I have felt Fade into nothing You are all that I am The strength I'm looking for With the world on my shoulders I look in your eyes There's that look in your eyes Nothing will change how I feel From the moment I loved you Till the day that we die you are my rock, You're my pain, you're my life From the moment I loved youforeverforever Forever When you touch me I falter Feeling like a child In that moment of wonder I look in your eyes There's that look in your eyes

There's that look, that look in your eyes
