

Liv Kristine, Over The Moon

I was on my knees
Crawling through the dry sahara
I was breaking down
Every wall standing in my way
And look what I found:
The road to heaven
Over the moon
Through featherly-light sky I fly
I'm over the moon
Since I found you
Crossing boundaries
Between my old and new life
Search the open field
For a flower of my taste
And look what I found:
The road to heaven
Over the moon
Through featherly-light sky I fly
I'm over the moon
Since I found you
But I know
What can't tear me down
Makes me much stronger
(So it's good for something)
I'm over the moon
Through featherly-light sky I fly
I'm over the moon
Since I found you
Over the moon
Over the moon
