

Live, Sister

see me walking aimlessly about,
don't know whether to whisper or to shout, i could be wrong, i could be very, very right.
here i stand, innocence in my room she's naked in my bed, wild thoughts inside my head oh no! she's my...

sister, with her, don't let your heart
break too soon.
maybe, baby, come on sister,
lady you're my breath!

i could have been to you tonight what i've wanted to be all my life the day is gone now i can see.
i can't sustain your love
i can't complain your love
i can't explain your love
oh no! she's my...

sister, with her, don't let your heart
break too soon
maybe, baby, come on sister,
lady you're my breath!

sister yeah...

she's my sister...
