

Liz Kay, When love becomes a lie

Still believe in me
Baby it's not for real
That we belong together
Circles in my mind
The truth is hard to find
Do I have to search forever?
When love becomes a lie
It's time to say goodbye
When love becomes a lie
Don't waste your tears just say goodbye
When love becomes a lie
There's no more need to try
When love becomes a lie
Don't waste your tears it's time to say goodbye
Forever in my dreams
Life's not what it seems
So hard to say its over
The way we used to live
I've got so much more to give
The fire and then the burn
When love becomes a lie
It's time to say goodbye
When love becomes a lie
Don't waste your tears just say goodbye
When love becomes a lie
There's no more need to try
When love becomes a lie
Don't waste your tears it's time to say goodbye
