

Lizzy McAlpine, what a shame

I don't wanna take my mind off you
Please, take me home and kiss me slow
And do anything you want to Run your hand through my hair
It's okay to be rough
I'm a little bit tougher
Than all of your other girlfriends

But you're not allowed
She's got you under lock and chain
Too late to let her down
So you're not allowed
What a shame it would be if you left her now
Now

I don't wanna take my mind off you
Please, make me laugh and kiss me back
And do everything you want to Push me up against the wall
It's okay to be rough
I can handle this stuff
Only if you're comfortable

But you're not allowed
She's got you under lock and chain
Too late to let her down
So you're not allowed
What a shame it would be if you left her now

Now
