LL Cool J, Don't Be Late, Don't Come Too Soon

[Intro: LL Cool J]

it's been a long time people change I missed you word up I used to always think about you even though sometimes I see you and I try to ignore you deep inside I was thinkin' about you what'd you think

[Verse 1: Tamia, LL Cool J]

you are my life I have to go on havin' me any way you want me baby just love me til the tension's gone and don't you come too soon

I'm patient I never come too soon when I kissed you you said it was the same old tune but I missed you my life was filled with gloom I was hopeless sittin' in an empty room when you re-appeared I was back in the mix I put the key up in the lock cause true love fixed all the drama got to stop baby no more tricks my broken heart was addicted but now it's fixed and I cherish you forever believe me you you's a priceless treasure from my point of veiw it took time to change I'll admit that my back in the days love I had to get back

[Chorus: Tamia]

you are my starship come take me up tonight and don't be late you are my starship come take me up tonight and don't be late and don't you come too soon (never that)

[Verse 2: LL Cool J]

I never thought that I would ever lay beside you again tastin' every inch plus being your friend romantic nights with shootin' stars and full moons kiss the rose better til it come full bloom can you feel it passions overflows in waves keep it steady providin' everything you crave now you ready I like that my love you save I love it when a bad girl agrees to behave it's the motion that makes your love affair complete but devotion makes it all twice as sweet back together reunited bonded once more before I was hestitant but now I'm sure

[Chorus (repeat 2x)]

[Outro: LL Cool J]

well now you know how I feel and I definetly know how you feel word up I'm feelin' this word up cause wit' you by my side I'm a take it to the top yeah
