

Lloyd Cole, I Hate To See You Doing That Stuff

i love to see you in your sweater girl i love you in your high tall boots
i love to see you in your sweater girl love to see you walking that cute, you know it i love to see you in your leather skin love your lipstick on my sheets and i love to see you in your alligator shoes reciting to me my poetry, i really do but i hate to see you baby doing that stuff i hate to see you doing that stuff
really hate to see you doing that stuff i love you baby when you bite my ear i don't worry about your uptown geek and i love you baby don't you bite your lip 'cause it's me you talk to in your sleep and
love your alligator chic et je t'aime te voir dans ton Christian Lacroix but i hate to see you walking my street, but
really hate to see you doing that stuff, ha ha
