

Lobo, Further From The Truth

(Joey Tempest / Kent LaVoie)

Messed around I'd had enough
Lost control I was all shook up
Yesterday was on my mind
When I came to you laid it on the line

Baby I was pushed right to the edge
What came over me I lost me head
If you think what I said was aimed at you
Well that couldn't be much further from the truth

Now baby you know how good you are
At bringing me back when things go too far
You're the last I want to do this to
But you're the first that I come to

I'll admit that I was wrong
I pushed too hard I came on too strong
If you think what I said was aimed at you
That couldn't be much further from the truth

I confess there's one thing baby I am guilty of
As much as I don't want to I hurt the one I love

I was pushed right to the edge
What came over me I lost my head
If you think what I said was aimed at you
Yes I'll admit that I was wrong
I pushed too hard I came on too strong
If you think what I said was aimed at you
That couldn't be much further
That couldn't be much further from the truth
