

Lobo, Have You Ever Had The Blues

(Harold Logan / Lloyd Price)

Well have you ever had the blues
And didn't know which way to go
Have you ever sat alone
And watched your telephone
Boy you've really had the blues

I don't know what love is
But this is one thing I know
Somebody's got to help me
These blues have got to go

I've got the blues
You know I'm feeling mighty sad
This looks like the end my friend
Yeah I really got the blues
