

Lobo, Sanctuary Of Your Love

(Billy Aerts & Kent LaVoie)

Your love was an island
When I felt a storm
Reaching out to shelter me
And keep me warm
Baby, I wanted more

You set me free and let
Me just drift away
Though I know it hurts you
Never once asked me to stay
Baby, I wished I'd stayed

Baby it's so cold and lonely
In the wind
Open up your heart
Let me back in
Everything without you's
Not enough
Pick me up and carry me back
To the sanctuary of your love

I feel like a ship
Just outside the bay
I've never been so close and
Never felt so far away
Baby what will you say
