

Lobo, The Shelter Of Your Eyes

(Don Williams)

In the shelter of your eyes
I have finally learned my song
It took so long to realize
I just can't make it all alone

Words are only what they say
But this feeling isn't wrong
And I'm so glad I found my way
It's good to be where I belong

And I'm gonna stay right here cause
I'm in rhythm with your eyes
Tune out the world and rest my head
In the shelter of your eyes

In the shelter of your eyes
I have finally learned my song
I'm so glad I found my way
It's good to be where I belong
