

Local H, Hands On The Bible

Hands on the Bible
scared like a child
God holds you liable
for what you've done

homicidal
stared down your idols
a pretty baby
never born

you cant believe it
you didnt mean it
but they saw you do it
and they know your name

rats in the attic
toys in the cellar
she's an addict
he wants to learn

egomaniacal
as you screw yourself into oblivion worn and faded
stoned and jaded
you'll have to face it
on your own
smashed on the pavement stunned in amazement
everything you make comes crawling back to you

you can't believe it
you didn't mean it

so hands on the bible
scared like a child

stared down your idols
a pretty baby never to be born

you can't pretend that you dont know the reasons for the REPENT at your side
hands on the bible
hands on the bible
