

Local H, How's The Weather Down There

Take anything you want, but leave everything you need.
But you better take heed, you won't get to see me bleed.
I can always change, but you'll always be the same.
It's such a crying shame, But someone should take the blame.

An if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, how you can look him in the eye.
An if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, theres no more of you and I
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that i know i'm being mean and i know i'm playing rough and i know you've had it tough, but i think i've had enough i was unaware of you ever playing fair, and i really dont care how's the weatther down there

An if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, how you can look him in the eye.
An if you go home with another tough guy,
I don't want to hear you cry, theres no more of you and I
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that
If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that and if you go home with another tough guy, another tough guy who's just a little too high and if you go home with another tough guy, i dont wanna hear you cry there's no more of you and i

i'm up in the air, how's the weather down there?
i dont want to play fair, and i really dont care
i'm up in the air, how's the weather downt here
i really dont care, i really dont care

If you wanna live, if you wanna live, if you wanna live i can help you out with that(repeat till end)
