

Loch Lomond, A Field Report

Field report to you oh my god
Field report to you oh my god
I wasted your time

Field report to you oh my god
Field report to you oh my god
I wasted your time

Sounds of children laughing makes my eyes bleed
The sounds of children laughing makes my eyes bleed and my heart

Teeter totters and daughters
Teeter totters and Daughters
are things I'll never have in my back yard Cause I'll never have a back yard.

Field report to you oh my god
Field report to you oh my god
I wasted your time

Field report to you oh my god
Field report to you oh my god
I wasted your time
