

Loch Ness, Flowers On The Grave

You have gone without saying
I can't go on, 'cause I know,
That everything now will be wrong
I try to find all these moments
And I try to go through
I want to dream again about you,
'Bout you and me
No matter where we are
There's still you and me
No matter just how far,
How far...
See your face, feel your lips
And your breath, when I sleep
I know, that you're so close to me
I can talk with you every day
And it's so; it's so strange
'Cause I put the flowers on your grave
And I can say, I just can't stand it now,
There's still you and me,
No matter just how far,
How far...
And I know, that you are near me,
When I look into your eyes
I can feel your warmth,
Like morning sun
And I still feel your heart beating
When I think, you're near
I look around, but there's no one here
But there's no one here...
No matter where we are
There's still you and me
No matter just how far,
How far...
And I know, that you are near me,
When I look into your eyes
I can feel your warmth,
Like morning sun
And I still feel your heart beating
When I think, you're near
I look around, I know, you're near!
And I know, that you are near me,
When I look into your eyes
I can feel your warmth,
Like morning sun
And I still feel your heart beating
When I think, you're near
I look around, but there's no one here
But there's no one here...
