

Lodger, When I Was Six

When I was six I had a girl
When I was twelve I had a girl
When I was twenty I had plenty
Twenty-one I had no one
No one

Oohohooo

My body rapes my mind

Oohohooo

My body does it from behind
My body rapes my mind

Oohohooo

My body does it from behind

When I was young I was told
You get dirty when you get old
The prophesy, it came true, so come on over and beat me blue
Woohoo

Oohohooo

My body rapes my mind

Oohohooo

My body does it from behind
My body rapes my mind

Oohohooo

My body does it from behind

Oohohooo

My body rapes my mind

Oohohooo

My body does it from behind
My body rapes my mind

Oohohooo

My body does it from behind
