

Logh, All The Trees

week upon week of seamless night i was going to get something off that guy got robbed and hit in t but when i caught up one guy had become three and i could not see for all the trees piece by piece the image cleared - no one ever made a friend around here i tried to make them see one night i'll fight you but not tonight this lonely night is already lost sad men with sadder ends, lonely nights and city lights i thought that i could see but i could not see for all the trees
