

Lola Ray, Charlit Movie Star

I know I'm more selfish now Would it calm my heart To Believe somehow
Have you seen your house
The Month that the world tracks end
You can sweep it all and move in tomorrow
cause everyday since then you have been gone

and she feels like a movie star in your arms
and she holds on for one more day now

I pretend to be your best friend though I want it more too bad I'm a bore Have you seen your house the month that the world tracks end
You can sweep it all and move in tomorrow

and she feels like a movie star in your arms
and she holds on
and she holds on
and she holds on for one more day now

This is what I haven't made up To believe is enough This what I am after
