

Lollipop, I'm Ready This Time

It's a Sunday morning, 6 a. m.
I should be leaving but I'm just not feelin' that strong It's been a lifetime since I felt this way but it's so hard to tell you what I'm wanting to say And I've got so much hidin' inside
'cos there's so much happened tonight

It's Monday morning, I don't know way been thinkin' about us and I can't stop however I try something' s wrong in all since yesterday and I can't help but feel you could slippin' away and there's just so much to tell you tonight

I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy, ooh I'm so happy
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
feels so good!

I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy, ooh I'm so happy
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time

This time baby
I won't let you down
This time baby
When you call me I'll be around

It's Sunday morning, 6. m.
I should be leaving but I'm still not feelin' that strong you wait a lifetime just to feel this way Then you can't find the words you know you're needin' to say and there's just so much hidin' inside
'cos there's so much happened tonight

I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy, ooh I'm so happy
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
feels so good!

I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy, ooh I'm so happy
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time

I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy, ooh I'm so happy
I'm ready this time

I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
feels so good!

I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy, ooh I'm so happy
I'm ready this time
I'm so happy when I fall in love
I'm ready this time
