

London After Midnight, Black Cats

oh little girl
don't go away
just come to bed
and there we'll stay
ooh, little girl
lie close to me
just close your eyes
what do you see
black cats..

ooo..
Entrance me
devour me
the storm outside
is raging still
there's no escape
the one that kills
oh little girl
the time has come
we think and move
exist as one

oo...

oo...

oo...

oo...

oo...

oo...

oo...

oo...

oh little girl
don't go away
just come to bed
and there we'll stay
oh little girl
lie close to me
just close your eyes
what do you see
Black Cats..

oo...

Entrance me
devour me
devour me
