

London After Midnight, Heaven Now

I dont want to bleed
I dont want to wait
I dont want to see the pain and the hate that you need to feel you need to feel alive

down inside your soul your blood and your skin numb to the cold and numb to the sin and it makes you feel it makes you feel alive

I want heaven
I want heaven right now

you've given it away
the sin you create
to addicts of pain
disease is the faith and it makes them feel it makes them feel alive

I just want the truth
I dont want your pain
I just want the truth
without your shame
and I need to feel
I need to feel alive

I want heaven
I want heaven right now

I've been crucified
almost died
I've seen too much of your darker side
I dont care anymore
I just want it all right now
