

Lonely Boys, Pretty Little Devil (With Angel Eyes)

Look at that girl she walks down the street so fine.
Oh look at that girl
I know what's on her mind.
She's an angel from above
She's got the best of two worlds and the sweet fire from below is what I really love.
'Cause she's a pretty little devil with angel
eyes
Pretty little devil with angel eyes
Pretty little devil with angel eyes
She's a pretty little devil with angel eyes
Pretty little devil with angel eyes
Pretty little devil with angel eyes
Ohh look at that girl
all the fellas are goin' out of their head Ohh look at that girl
Her walk can raise the dead
She's an angel from above
She's got the best of two worlds
and the sweet fire from below is what I really
love.
'Cause she's a pretty little devil with angel
eyes
Pretty little devil with angel eyes
