

Lonely Kings, Did I Say I'm Sorry?

Party's over
Say goodnight to those new friends
The night grows older
We had to watch the day begin
You never seem bored
If there's some wall it gets town down
So pick up those dreams
Prince Dormir how do you sleep?
And again, that smile you spread is just so wide
We cannot fail/fall
Because we don't know wrong from....
Wrong from right so
Did I say I'm sorry?
I did not find what I was looking for
Did I say I'm sorry?
I know you needed so much more
You think you know about
Everything that life puts out
But you were so close
Yet so far to be cast out
We're coming over
Leave a light on, we don't leave
Dropped like a leaf
So compelling, how do you breath?
