

Lonewolf, Eternity

Try to count religions on the globe count the wars and the people without hope We praise the same holy God but we think we do not

All the people give Him a different name but I know that He is the same I'm sad about that we can't see we are wrong, there's only He Refrain: Eternity, for you and me forevermore in unity believe again and you will see that this whole world could now agree

So many names for only Him so many wars and nobody wins beyond our thoughts above us all we will hear the eternal call

Refrain
