

Lonewolf, Jonathan

Jonathan, Jonathan, where have you been ?
I was searching for you since you once left me.
Tell me, Boy, did you ever miss your sweet home and a single kiss, oh, Jonathan, Jonathan, where have you been ?

Mother, oh, Mother dear don't you cry,
I also missed you, but I had to fly,
fly away from my once loved home,
fly away, weak and on my own,
Mother, oh, Mother dear don't you cry.

Oh please, forgive your son,
Son, will you stay by my side,
I have to leave you once again,
don't forget the place you can hide.
Mother, oh, Mother dear don't you cry.

Solo

Fly my only son,
but don't forget, where you're coming from !
