

Lonewolf, Mercy & Grandeur

Look around you, hear the screams of the millions fall in time see their sorrows, feel their pain it's hard to bear this mind

You ask yourself where God is now and why the Lord has left our side going back to our roots again you'll feel His might Refrain: Look to the sky, there's a moment to find when the Lord shows His mercy & grandeur Don't lose your faith in our God and His grace 'cause His kingdom will come by the return of His son time will come

Look around you, see the dreams of the millions lost their faith see their hope and feel their fears yearning for another place

Answers you'll find everywhere join your soul and find your heart His promises will become true no longer we'll be apart

Refrain
