

Loney, Dear, I Am John

Johnny and I, we got lost tonight, we got carried away.
It takes someone like me to lose track like that, to be troubled down, got a heart full of plans but nowhere to run.
There were seventeen dogs out to track us down and I got some bruises and I got a scar but now, never gonna let you down, and I got it wrong like I knew I would, and I told you,
never gonna let you down,
I must never let you down, never gonna let you

And everything must start from here, in a sunshine with ease with somewhere to go,
with no sticky feeling of going wrong, no heartbeat asking where you're gonna go.
With the trouble you wear, you want to wear it down, you want to make something new of this but never gonna make it (home), never gonna make it.
Someone I want now, somewhere I want to go, and I told you,
never gonna let you down,
never gonna let you down,
but I will always let you down.

I said Johnny and I, we got lost tonight, but we doubled our chances, we've got somewhere to go.
We've got devils chasing us to hunt us down, and we know we can't go like this from now.
I've got a feeling of you, and we danced for so long,
I want your arms around me, said never gonna let you down, was never gonna let you Someone I want now, somewhere I want to go, and I told you,
never gonna let you down,
never gonna let you down,
but I will always let you down.

I've got a feeling of you and we danced for so long,
I want your arms around me like lovers do,
and I'm never gonna let you down, gon' let you down, gon' let you down, gon' let
I've got a feeling of you and we danced for so long,
I want your arms around me like lovers do,
and I'm never gonna let you down, gon' let you down, gon' let you down, gon' let you down.
Johnny and I, we got lost tonight, we got carried away.
It takes someone like me to lose track like that, to be troubled down, got a heart full of plans but nowhere to run.
And everything must start from here, in a morning with ease with somewhere to go,
with no sticky feeling of going wrong,
with no heartbeats asking where you're gonna go.
I've got a feeling of you and we danced for so long,
I want your arms around me like lovers do,
and I'm never gonna let you down, gon' let you down,
gon' let you down, gon' let you down.
I've got a feeling of you and we danced for so long,
I want your arms around me like lovers do,
and I'm never gonna let you down, gon' let you down, gon' let you down, gon' let you down.
