Long Beach Dub Allstars, Kick Down Featuring D

kick me down is all i hear now adays Break me off you can say it in a thousand ways give me this, give me that as if you feed on greed lyin' to kick it just to smoke up all my weed dri nkin my brew and gettin drunker than me tell me what is it that you wantin from me aint nothin free i had to work to get whats comin to me open your eyes and realize that this is somethin' to see kick down is what they talk 'bout today your in my arena but you dont wanna play its how you move and not what you say when the cats away the mice will play cause im remembering the days when i didnt have nothin livin in the ghetto east side ill tell you something from the life ive lived and what ive seen nothing from nothing means nothing so you better have somethin if you wanna kick down from me so lets move to the side and make this discrete take a look at my numbers to see if they meet up with your stylin to fill up your streets i dont who you are but i guess you know me stop thinking you can come up so easily kick me down is all i hear now adays Break me off you can say it in a thousand ways give me this, give me that as if you feed on greed lyin' to kick it just to smoke up all my weed drinkin my brew and gettin drunker than me tell me what is it that you wantin from me aint nothin free i had to work to get whats comin to me open your eyes and realize that this is somethin' to see what is it that you beggin me for ive got it all but now you cant have it ive learned from what ive earned and established my status as a job to manage and to my advantage i will stand ground shake your hand like the realest man around and your town kickin you down for a minute
