

Long Since Forgotten, Withstand

The peaceful calm you bring.
Laugh, live, everything.
Hear me pray at night,
cause I'm living not by sight.
And I care for you,
imagining touching you.
Tell me where to start,
and I'll open up my heart.
It's true..

When we stand together,
you teach to face the weather.
I'm holding day tonight,
cause I'm touching not by sight.
And I care for you,
Imagining touching you.
Tell me where to start,
And I'll open up my heart.
It's true..

Bathe me with your words,
Sing the song of birds.
Bathe me with your eyes,
Tear the chains from inside.

Break the chains from inside.
From my heart, from my eyes.

Break the chains from inside.
From my heart, from my eyes.

Break the chains from inside.
From my heart, from my eyes.

Break the chains from inside.
From my heart, from my eyes.

And I care for you,
Imagining touching you.
Tell me where to start,
And I'll open up my heart.
