

Longpigs, Dance Baby Dance

It's a cheap fix a face in the crowd
but the sweetest face god would allow and given this love

almost completely
i want you to eat sweets
that fill the tongues of love so dance baby dance

how does it feel where you are your shine is my battle
your shine is my war

i believe in love
it doesn't make it true what a good friend be for you so slam the closet door

almost completely

and dance baby dance

i ask you impossible things you ask you too many to answer just four give you impossible love it's no good to me i'll ask you to slow me down and stop take a look you got to be joking and as always money talks just says goodbye and walks i need you to eat sweets
