

Longwave, Best Kept Secret

I know you are my best kept secret best kept away you know I don't need to see the light i want to take what you give me to feel alright you know I don't mind at all i'm gonna try break this fever in my head you know I can't break out of my mind i want to watch all this city go up tonight
but if your scared
you don't have to be because the ending is so pretty and when I'm down I'm on my knees and i don't need to see the light
best kept inside and I don't need a drink to get me by but in my new city so cold and bright
