

Look What I Did, Appomattox Whorehouse

Let`s make
A pact
Officially proclaiming the fact that everyone`s
Officially blaming everyone else

If you took your image
With the same spark you take to
Absorbing their torture
With equal contempt
They`re inside you
And you`re in them

Neutral ground you`ll see
You can`t attack me
You can`t affect me
Those were the conditions

Just attack me
The mirror
You service it

Hungry with two fists
The loathing exploding
Your spite in your own face

Neutral ground you`ll see
You can`t attack me
You can`t affect me
Those were the conditions

Our conscience has caught us
We`ll bury it
Our conscience has caught us
We`ll bury it
Our conscience has caught us
We`ll bury it
Our conscience has caught us
We`ll bury it

No excuses remain to save us now

(Muffled) Neutral ground you`ll see

Let`s make
A pact
Officially proclaiming the fact that everyone`s
Officially blaming everyone else

Let`s make
A pact
Blaming everyone
Else!
