

Looptroop Rockers, Slippin'

I'm slippin'
fallaway at the parachute
The happiest form
to walk in the pair of shoes My energy is like in the up of the avenue
If you ask me right now i probably marry you You Like the preserve is colder than the past us two?
you can take this baby
let me catch the flu
my sweat origin
of the cabbage juice?
within day the two days that the true
you make me write that thing tunes
With the eyes of neptunes
i was seal in the whirl
If you tell me you needed it While i dont need it
that's sure!

I cant keep from slippin into your love cant keep from slippin (slippin) into your love Into your love

So how i made you my Tell me its good surprise
Who the fucked it up?
I was paralyzed
Smack that cold
over the first round
never keepin the count always goin down
I was probably the second Who walked in i should just tell its
the way we got promote to win
but i earn your trust
We make a own love
And i never gave up on both the two of us
you make me write that thing tunes
With the eyes of Neptunes
If you tell me you needed it
While i dont need it
that's sure!

He got me as stupid and i love it trying to blow fist over my cover You swept the road for mines over my feet.
bugged the house
All of a sudden How could you be Better than me

If you tell me you needed it
While i dont need it
that's sure1
