

Loraine McFarland, I'm Back Again

Verse 1

Hello gorgeous i'm back again
Lemme tell you what's been goin on
I've been wanting to go back again
I don't never ever want you back
Cause I disowned you
That was bittersweet
I had my highs and had my lows you know

Chorus

I've been away for to long
And now im back singing my new songs
It's gonna be great
I know it'll be the revolution start of something new
Hell yeah
Im back again

Verse 2

Now would you, could you
And let me go
The way it should be
I'm moving on
Why can't we go back into my past

Coda

I've never been so sad
Feeling the blues
Saying goodbye to my girls
I'm torn between finding me life
It's all based on a true story
