

Loraine McFarland, I'm Not Her

Verse 1

A broken heart is all you know
 And so is all the pain
 I bet that your so sick
 Sick of all of it
 I would be to
 I don't blame you
 You need to find a truth
 You need to find a truth
 Oh baby
 Realize

 Chorus
 That I am not her
 I would never bring you down
 I could never hurt you
 You

Verse 2

Maybe that someday
 You will stop being afraid
 And finally let me in
 Lead me to your heart
 Then your pain might fade away
 It could take long
 But I would be with you
 Right there through it all
 But go realize
