

Loraine McFarland, Not The Same

Verse 1

- Sometimes you wish that you could turn back time
- To bring back the things you love
- Another chance to rewind
- But as much as you want you can't repeat the past
- Though things are not clear
- You'll still be right here

□ Chorus

- No matter how hard that you try
- Those tears will still fall from your eyes
- We'd wish for no more pain
- If we'd go back it's not the same

□ Verse 2

- Some people say that time can fix anything
- But somehow I'm still here dwelling on the past
- What I had was great, no one can take that
- I still need a moment to bring it all back

□ Coda

- Oh yes I would
- No matter how hard that you try
- Those tears will still fall from your eyes
- We'd wish for no more pain
- If we'd go back it's not the same
- Oh yes I would
- Not the same
- Nooooo
- Not the same, no
