

Loraine McFarland, Over You

Verse 1

I don't know what has happend
Things are not the same
I've lost all my intrest
Since i've went away
I use to answer to your
Every beckon call
Now I don't care at all
I'm not who I use to be
Now I do things for me

Chorus

I have gotten over you
Over all those things that you use to do
I've forgotten all the memories
Blocked out all times you hurt me
Where's the love

Verse 2

When you said you loved me
I thought that it was real
But now that I know better
I am numbing that old feel
I don't need those kisses
Or your hugs afterall
I need more than your latenight phonecalls
Since im not who I use to be
I can finally be free

Coda

I don't really know him
But what I know is
He can decide if he wants to be
With me
I don't know what has happend
Things are not the same
And I kinda like it
