

Loraine McFarland, The Last Song

Verse 1

I don't know what has happened
There's something really wrong
Between the little arguments and fights
We don't get along
Your always getting jealous
Over such small stuff
Sometimes I just wanna shout out that enough's enough
Answer me
Just tell me this

Chorus

Have you forgotten who you use to be
Best friends we said we'd always be
But I don't know who you are right now
But I have tried
I have tried
Whatever I
Whatever I can

Verse 2

I'm tired of the trying
To turn your life around
Everytime I pick you up
You fall right back down
I'd hate to loose our friendship
We have been through alot
But I refuse to be around someone that I feel I cannot trust
Answer me
Just tell me this

Coda

Right now i've gotta let you know you've got to go away
I have enough problems of my own to deal with
